Guadalupe County Veterans Memorial and Community Center: Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony (Paperback)

By Daniel B Flores

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Guadalupe County officials began planning for what would eventually be known as the Guadalupe County Veteran Memorial and Community Center in 2013. At that time the old Guadalupe County General Hospital building located on Lake Drive near Park Lake was vacant. The Guadalupe County Hospital had moved into a new and modern facility located on Camino de Vida on the southwestern part of Santa Rosa. The new hospital was located across the street the Santa Rosa Consolidated Schools new middle school facility. The county commission, after much input from area citizens, decided to convert the old hospital into a facility to honor Guadalupe County veterans. County commissioners at that time were Vince Cordova, Alvin Maestas and Ernest Tapia. The county manager was George Dodge, Jr. The county applied for a Community Development Block Grant, CDBG, from the state, to proceed for the development of the Veterans Memorial and Community Center. The commissioners and county manager were successful in getting a federal CDBG grant of $500,000 for their project. Guadalupe County also provided $237,000 in local funds. The County was also successful in getting an additional...
